des Coteaux d'Albret*

Albret, Jeanne was queen of Navarre and mother of Henry IV, one of the most famous French kings. Since the 12th century, the royal family of Albret has transmitted us its sense of modernity, its willingness to fulfil one's ambition and to offer the best of a good and beautiful land. La Cave des Coteaux d'Albret is proud of this heritage.

Bringing together 85 producers, the "Cave Cooperative des Coteaux d'Albret" covers a vast area of 950 hectares, and produce wines of five appellations: Bordeaux Rouge, Bordeaux Supérieur Rouge, Bordeaux Rosé, Bordeaux Blanc and Entre-deux-Mers. Since 1934, we know how to blend Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Sauvignon Blanc, Semillon and Muscadelle, with balance and harmony.

Solidarity and friendship, our wines are keepers of our values, with a simple idea: "to serve you well, we remain ourselves".
