

Vignobles Thomas

The vineyard of the Thomas Family extends over 32 hectares in AOC Lustrac-Médoc and Haut-Médoc,. It is located in northwest of Bordeaux and produces fine red wines with character.

Château REVERDI and Château l'Ermitage are the two main wines produced by the Thomas Family. They come from a blend of grapes (50% of Merlot, 40% of Cabernet Sauvignon, and 10% of Petit Verdot) from the best terroirs (clayey limestone and siliceous gravel).

For several generations, in the Thomas family, everyone is a winemaker (Mathieu and Audrey are currently the third generation). This wine heritage has been preserved over generations with the greatest care to ensure consumers to savour red wines with character that make the reputation of Lustrac-Medoc.

This family passion has been transmitted with respect and perseverance over the years.

Château l'Ermitage in 1954 was a small 3 hectares vineyard operated by Roger Thomas. His nephew, Christian, provided the winemaking and marketing operations from 1995. In 2007, his children have succeeded him.

Château Reverdi is the result of ongoing work by George Thomas from 1953 to 1981, by his son Christian from 1981 to 2007, and by the children of the latter now.
